FEEDBACK FROM OUR WORKSHOPS

"Kara ran a practical, interactive workshop that allowed for participants to identify the factors that hold us back and influence our ability to communicate our needs assertively. She also orchestrated helpful role plays that allowed for us to practice constructive communication in a safe and supportive manner. The group dynamic was empowering and encouraging. Thanks for bringing like minded people together Kara!" Isabella Mitchell, Director & Founder of The Meet Up Collective

"On July 22 I officially took over as the Executive Officer for Golf Management Australia WA division. Anyone who has met me would say I'm a fairly outgoing confident person, but the reality was on the inside my confidence in the task ahead was low. I was nervous! So I signed up for Kara Ronin's Leadership Communication Masterclass that was being held the day before I took over. The timing was perfect and I guess in a way I thought that with the right communication style and a refresh on basic skills I would get some confidence back. Well thanks to Kara meeting all of my expectations. And a big thank you to being more assertive in my communication and confident in my decision making. It has honestly made my first couple of weeks more enjoyable and less stressful and I'm looking forward to attending another workshop in the future. Thanks Kara" - Nicole Martino, Executive Officer at Golf Management Australia, WA Division
